

Privacy Policy Statement

Supportive Housing Communities (SHC) is a nonprofit, charitable organization with a mission of providing affordable housing to alleviate homelessness and human suffering. SHC is a 501©3 nonprofit, publicly supported organization. Contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Donors

SHC gathers information on donors to keep track of donations and to report back to donors on their gifts. In order to fulfill its mission, SHC maintains a database that is compiled exclusively of information knowingly and voluntarily provided to SHC by our donors. SHC does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information about our donors unless required for law enforcement or otherwise required by law.

Website

SHC does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information about website visitors unless required for law enforcement or otherwise required by law. An exception is made when SHC secures online information for credit card donations, which is shared with our credit card processing company. SHC routinely gathers data on website activity, such as how many people visit our site, the pages they visit and where they come from. Site visitor ship data is collected on an aggregate, anonymous basis, which means no personal information is associated with this data.

Change in Privacy Policy Statement

All changes that may occur in this privacy policy will be posted.

Contact

To review personal information, request corrections, and/or inform that you would not like your information shared outside of SHC, contact Kelly Lynn at 704-953-3053 or kelly@aplacetoliveagain.org.
